We asses the generated image on the following rules

- Does the image match the expected product & category
- Is the product clearly highlighted
- Verify that the product features are correctly represented
- Check for visual artifacts, distortions, or unnatural elements
- overall image resolution and clarity
- Ensure the scale and proportions are appropriate
- is the product in the right setup or background
- Evaluate if the image portrays people, cultures, and concepts in respectful and appropriate ways